HUNGARIAN REPORT OF "BACKBITING IN CIA"

The following brief item appeared in the 1 January 1966 issue of Tukor, an illustrated weekly, Budapest, page 3: "Backbiting in CIA -- Admiral Raborn, chief of American Central Intelligence, the CIA, has very quietly removed one of his leading subordinates and has promised further dismissals. The reason -- some of his men started a campaign against him discrediting him personally and especially the worth of his information."
